Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Posts that include access to children and/or vulnerable adults are exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that in addition to the requirement of all staff to declare offences and convictions that are current, staff applying for posts that include access to children and/or vulnerable adults are required to declare information related to convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that have been spent. Applicants are not entitled to withhold this information and details should be declared below.

All posts:

Please give details of any offences, convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that are current.

Posts that include access to children/vulnerable adults (as specified in the job description):

Please give details related to convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that have been spent. Applicants for these posts should note that successful candidates will be required to provide an Independent Safeguard Authority (ISA) Certificate and/or Enhanced Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) Disclosure.
