

Workshop "legal aspects of shipping preserved animals and tissues"

in Cooperation with

Museum für Naturkunde, Berlin

Zoologischen Staatssammlung München

Humboldt-Ring

ZOOLOGISCHE
STAATSSAMMLUNG
MÜNCHEN

(Association of German Natural History Collections)

Location: Amgueddfa Cymru – National Museum Wales, Committee Rooms

Duration: 22nd June 2014 (including lunch & coffee breaks)

Cost: £25. Transport and accommodation costs must be covered by the participants.

Lecturers: Dirk Neumann (ZSM), Peter Giere (ZMB)

Registration: <http://www.museumwales.ac.uk/spnhc2014/registration/>

Note: this will be a very full days workshop. All lectures will be provided as free PDFs for self-training. Regular refreshments will be available, followed by a well deserved debrief at a local pub!

Programme: Sunday 22rd June 2014

9:00 – 9:15: Welcome

9:15 – 9:45: Legal requirements for shipping species - relevant laws & regulations

9:45 – 10:15: Veterinary legislation

10:15 – 10:30: Coffee break

10:30 – 11:15: CITES & animal protection legislation

11:15 - 12:15: IATA regulations including IATA training "Special Provision A180"

12:15 – 13:30: Lunch break

13:30 – 14:00: Customs laws & regulations

14:00 – 14:30: Packing and shipping: marking & documentation requirements

14:30 – 15:00: Questions, open discussion

15:00 – 15:30: Tea break (Regular refreshments provided)

15:30 – 16:00: Introduction to Access Benefit Sharing (ABS) / Nagoya Protocol

16:30 – 17:30: European ABS legislation and global benefit sharing regimes:

Consequences for Europe and beyond

17:30 – 18:00: Open discussion

18:00: End

