at National Slate Museum.

Purpose of role: to assist and welcome visitors to the Museum. The National Slate Museum is sited in the Victorian workshops built in the shadow of Elidir Mountain, site of the vast Dinorwig quarry. Here you can travel into the past of an industry and a way of life that has chiselled itself into the very being of this country. We are looking for volunteers to help our staff to welcome visitors to this unique museum.

Location: National Slate Museum, Llanberis

Department: Visitor Services

Age: 16+

The role would suit you if:

- You're interested in customer services or the Museum.
- You're willing to get involved
- Enjoy helping others to learn and explore
- You're able to speak Welsh and English

Interested? Email volunteering@museumwales.ac.uk or phone 02920 57 3002 to register your interest!

Considerations: Volunteers need to be able to hold a conversation in Welsh for this role. This role is also only available during school holidays (except for Christmas).

Hours and Commitment: Ideally, we are seeking volunteers who are available between 11.30am and 2.30pm for up to 3 hours. This role is only available during school holidays.

What we do for our volunteers:

- We offer travel expenses
- Discounts in our shops and cafés
- We offer references on request
- We also have celebration events, behind the scene access, and a chance for you to meet new people.
