

Activity Time!

Here are some more food themed activities for you to enjoy at home!

Why not make some portraits with food? You could make smiley faces on your toast or make biscuits and decorate them using your favourite ingredients

Make your own frozen banana lollies with a variety of different toppings

Put some flour on a tray and explore patterns and shapes. For babies, If you don't mind the mess, sit them on the floor with the flour in front of them so they can explore the flour with their hands and / or feet!
