

Collecting Covid: Wales 2021

There are two sections to this questionnaire.

The information contained within Part 1 will be made available to researchers and other members of the public.

The information contained within Part 2 is personal and will be held securely and not shared with anyone, unless the Museum is obligated to do so for legal purposes. Your name and contact details will be used by the Museum to manage your contribution. The information will also be anonymised and used to help build a statistical profile of Wales during COVID-19.

Participation and Use Agreement

The collecting and recording of people's memories about life in Wales has always been an important part of the work of Amgueddfa Cymru - National Museum Wales (the Museum), it is part of our Royal Charter and is integral to our Public Task. The Museum's aim is to safeguard these memories, and your contribution will form part of the National Collection and be archived in the public interest. This agreement will allow the Museum to permanently preserve and use your contribution and ensure that it is added to the Museum's collection.

I agree that my contribution will become part of the National Collection cared for by Amgueddfa Cymru – National Museum Wales. It will be preserved as a permanent public reference resource, for use in research, publication, education, lectures, broadcasting, online and digital resources, and also third-party use deemed appropriate by the Museum.

If I am under 18 my parent or legal guardian has agreed to my participation, and to the use of any photographs (of or by me), and any audio/visual contributions, and has completed the demographic information on my behalf.

Copyright Agreement

I declare that I am the legal owner, free from encumbrance, of the material uploaded, and I hereby donate them to the Museum as an absolute and perpetual gift.

I am the copyright holder of the contribution I have uploaded and fully and permanently assign to Amgueddfa Cymru – National Museum Wales all copyright. However, if I want to, I may still use the material I have uploaded for my own personal use.

I understand that my name and contact details will be used by the Museum to manage this contract.
