

national museum
wales
amgueddfa
cymru

Roman Art

Find these objects in the Gallery and then draw your own version of them.

This is an Antefix. It was used to decorate Roman roofs.

This is a coin showing the head of Sabina, the wife of the Emperor Hadrian

This is a Roman soldier's helmet. It is made from iron and is now rusty. It was worn around 2000 years ago.

This is a gemstone from a Roman ring. It shows Diana the huntress with her bow and arrow.