THE VULCAN, CARDIFF'S OLDEST PUB, IS OPENING ITS DOORS TO YOU.

In 2012, following a successful campaign to save it from demolition, the owners of The Vulcan Hotel formally offered the building to Amgueddfa Cymru. In May of that year, our Curators and Historic Buildings Unit began the process of carefully recording The Vulcan Hotel before dismantling it brick by brick. Rebuilding work began in 2020, and in the summer of 2024 the doors will finally be opened, for the first time in over a decade.

Set within the historic grounds of the St Fagans National Museum of History, the Vulcan is 2024's most exclusive venue.

Wow your guests with a truly bespoke event, and be the first to host your very own Vulcan lock-in.

Step back in time and let the 1915 historical interpretation of the Vulcan guide your party and enjoy our range of craft ales.

From intimate parties to networking events and family occasions, everyone is welcome through the doors of this Cardiff institution.

With limited dates available for the year, starting from Saturday 14 September 2024, don't miss your chance to book The Vulcan for your event now!
