St Fagans National Museum of History

Purpose of role: To bring the museum to life for visitors of all ages! Help visitors get hands on with real museum objects, play games, and help people find their way. For example, help visitors to play dominoes in Oakdale Workmen's Institute or show the Welsh Not to visitors in our galleries.

Location: St Fagans

Department: Volunteering & Engagement

Age: 14+

Closing Date: 26 November 2024

The role would suit you if:

- you're willing to get involved;
- you enjoy helping others to learn and explore about History;
- you would like to develop your confidence in speaking to people and answering questions.

Considerations:

As part of your training for the role, please note the dates below:

28 November, 10:30am – 14:00pm: Explore Training Day. This will be a mandatory training session for all volunteers. This day will provide you with information about the collection, museum and the role.

There will also be optional training days to learn further about other elements, for example, how to play a pianola.

Hours and Commitment:

The role will be available 7 days a week. There will morning and afternoon slots available. You can volunteer as little or as often as you like. For example, a morning a week or just during school holidays.
