

GRAFT: A Soil Based Syllabus Volunteer National Waterfront Museum Swansea

Purpose of role: the GRAFT garden is an educational and artistic space in the National Waterfront Museum Swansea. GRAFT is cared for, built and managed by a group of community volunteers. Volunteer tasks include gardening, woodwork, cooking and more... . Everyone welcome!

Location: National Waterfront Museum Swansea Department: Engagement

Age: 18+

Closing Date: ongoing

The role would suit you if:

- you're willing to get involved;
- you're happy to volunteer outdoors;
- you're interested in gardening, woodwork or cooking.

Considerations:

- no previous skills required;
- equipment provided;
- refreshments provided;
- will need to be willing to volunteer outdoors throughout the year in all weathers;
- this can be a physical role and will require volunteers to be comfortable bending, walking on uneven ground, carry, etc. However, we are happy to adapt tasks to fit people's needs.

Hours and Commitment: volunteering takes place Fridays 10am-3pm.
