

take pART Event Assistant National Slate Museum

take pART 2027 Event Assistant

We are looking for an Amgueddfa Cymru Producer to help us develop & run activities as part of our presence at take pART 2027, Venue Cymru's annual arts, literature and science event for people 0-18yrs and their families.

We are looking to develop new activities based on the National Slate Museum's collection. Despite the National Slate Museum being closed for redevelopment, we want to continue to engage with our audiences. You will be pulling ideas together, gathering resources and helping run the activity on the weekend of January 16-17, 2027 in Venue Cymru, Llandudno.

You will...

- Develop ideas for a creative, interactive and hands on activity suitable for families and young people.
- Work with National Slate Museum staff to test out the activity.
- Source the materials needed.
- Work at take pART in Venue Cymru, 16-17 January, to host the activity alongside museum staff.

You should be comfortable working on your own initiative.

You will need to travel to and from Llandudno to attend take pART in January. If travel is a barrier to you applying, please let us know and we can discuss access requirements and make an adjustment.

Welsh is essential for this role. All activities will need to be produced bilingually, and an understanding and appreciation of this is important.

You will be managed by the Engagement Department.

We estimate 5 days to complete this project. Additional days may be available.
